Karen Kelly, President

Karen Kelly is a Pediatric ARNP employed by the Neurology Division of Nemours Children's Hospital Orlando. She has been a practicing Pediatric ARNP for 16 years. Karen previously worked as a Primary Care ARNP. Karen completed her undergraduate studies at the University of Central Florida and her graduate studies at University of Florida (Go Knights! Go Gators!) Karen is married to Orlando Medical News Publisher, John Kelly. The family has 3 children who keep them quite busy. In her spare time, Karen enjoys running, watching her daughter's volleyball matches, and spending time at the beach.

John Kelly, Vice President - Publisher

Since 2005, John Kelly has served as publisher of Orlando Medical News (OMN). In June 2016, John, and his wife Karen, acquired the publication from Nashville-based SouthComm Communications. Karen serves as company president.

Prior to joining the national Medical News family, John was Florida sales manager for a wireless and telecommunication company. In 1980, John completed undergraduate studies with dual majors (history and social studies) from the State University of New York (SUNY) at Cortland. The Kellys, married 29 years, have three children, the youngest a sophomore at Advent University. John also coaches high school basketball in Central Florida.
